

Project update – Barangaroo Station

August 2024

Sydney Metro is Australia’s biggest public transport project

Services started in May 2019 in the city’s North West, with a train every four minutes in the peak. Metro rail will be extended into the CBD in 2024, with new CBD metro railway stations at Crows Nest, Victoria Cross, Barangaroo, Martin Place, Gadigal and Waterloo and new metro platforms at Central and then onto Bankstown in 2025.

BESIX Watpac is building Barangaroo Station, including the station fit-out, associated landscaping and civil works, and the realignment of Hickson Road.

Systems Connect (an unincorporated joint venture between CPB Contractors and UGL Limited) is delivering line-wide work, which includes installing metro rail track, power systems, communications, and infrastructure to turn the excavated tunnels into a working railway between Chatswood and Sydenham.

The Trains, Systems, Operations & Maintenance (TSOM) group is delivering the communication and signalling systems, and the platform screen door installation.

Barangaroo Station – upcoming work

Hickson Road will be closed between Barton Street and Towns Place on two non-consecutive nights in late August.

- 1. On the night of Sunday 18 August, with Monday 19 and Tuesday 20 as contingency. The closure will allow work to finish the road surface and footpaths under Dalgety Bridge.
- 2. On the night of Sunday 25 August, with Monday 26 and Tuesday 27 August as contingency. The closure will allow line marking work.

Following the road closure, the final alignment will be permanently opened in both directions. Specific details will be provided via notification closer to the date.

Work to build the facades of the ventilation pods along the eastern side of Hickson Road will continue, including the installation of metal cladding. Construction of the kerb and pavement for the new bicycle path will continue, as will work to render the heritage wall under High Street.

We expect to hand over the station precinct to the west of Hickson Road to Infrastructure NSW (iNSW) and the City of Sydney in late July. The lift and escalator entrances will be cordoned off using hoarding until the City and Southwest metro line opens to the public which is currently targeted for Sunday 4 August.

Location	Activities during standard construction hours
Hickson Road (between Windmill Street Bridge and High Steps) and the public domain around Nawi Cove and at Headland Park	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minor stormwater pipe works will continue at the western corner of Nawi Cove. • Continuing kerb and pavements for the bike lane on the eastern side of Hickson Road under Dalgety Bridge. • Continuing to render the heritage wall under High Street, where required, using mobile plant and /or from scaffold. This work is being undertaken per heritage guidelines and will not generate noise. • Continuing the installation of metal work to the façade around the ventilation pods along the heritage wall under High Street.

No pedestrian access along the heritage wall below High Street during remaining construction

Pedestrian access on Hickson Road along the heritage wall remains closed during the construction of the ventilation pods, footpath and cycle lane on the Eastern side of Hickson Road. Alternative access is available via the High Steps and Wulugul Walk or via Kent Street for those requiring an accessible route (via lifts from Hickson Road at Barangaroo to Kent Street).
